New "Trust"WASHINGTON, May 9.—The proposed merger of seven of the largest independent iron and steel corporations, which are said to be capable of a total annual production of 10,000-000 tons of steel, served today to fan the opposition in the senate to the "protective" iron and steel rates of the pending Mcumber tariff bill.Senator LaFollette, Republican of Wisconsin, member of the senate finance committee, said that it was his intention to press for early action upon his resolution calling upon Attorney General Daugherty and the federal trade commission for information regarding what steps they have taken or proposed to take to "ascertain the purpose or probable effects of the proposed merger."LaFollette directed attention to a statement he said was recently made in New York city that the United States Steel Corporation "will not look with disfavor" on the creation of a "secondary steel trust" and that "with two big steel combination in the field, prices should be more uniform."Steel manufacturers were understood to claim that the new combination "would tend to stabilize the steel industry now that the computed 10-000,000 tons capacity of the seven corporations could be "compared favorably" to the 22,000,000 ton capacity of the United States Steel Cor-

FOR CLUE IN CHOIR GIRL MURDERThis old mill, owned by William T. Hanna, father of Gertrude Hanna, slain at Hoopeston, Illinois, is being searched by authorities for a clue to the brutal murder of the pretty choir girl. John C. Wyman, alleged confessed betrayer of the girl, still is under guard by officials. Miss Hanna's body was found in the basement of a Hoopeston church.One Man Shot By Officer When Still in Trinity Neighborhood Is RaidedAbout noon Monday, while deputies from the sheriff's office were making a raid on a still two miles north of Trinity, John Hutto was painfully, though not seriously, shot. The deputies had located the still and were in the act of surrounding persons nearby when their presence became known and a dash out of the range of the deputies was begun. Hutto was the only capture made.The wounded man was at once rushed to town where he was given medical assistance, and carried to Benevolenthospital. The attending physician, Dr. Omar M. Roan, reports his condition improved this morning, and he will recover according to latest advices from the hospital.
The still destroyed was of 150 gallon capacity with a nucleus of 1000 gallons of beer to work on. The still was constructed according to the officers on the molasses evaporator style and was in full blast. A woman was at the scene, according to the officers, having just brought the dinner to the men who were engaged there.County Lends Help To Improving Highway From Hartselle to DanvilleThe audience granted the delegation of citizens from Hartselle by the members of the board of revenue was productive of results, and some help will be given to the pike leading west from Hartselle. This is a popular highway, and at present it is almost impossible to travel it. The constant traffic over this route, together with the continued wet weather has rendered it in almost an impassable stage.The arguments brought to bear on the members of the board of revenue was successful, and at an early date there will be a program of reconstruction of this much used thoroughfare. It is one of the principal roads of the county, it was pointed out, andits condition warrants notice and active measures taken at once to remedy them, visitors told the board.It is understood that this stretch of road will be taken care of along with the other projects launched by the board of revenue, so soon as money is available from the sale of bonds. It is further understood that there is a hitch somewhere in the ultimate sale of the bonds, and at this time it is impossible to tell exactly when the money will be available. It is confidently hoped and is the belief that the sale of bonds will be ratified by the bond bidder at an early date. When this is announced, the work will begin at once.Senior Class of County High School

With the waterworks rendered useless by the high water, more than $200,000 damage has been caused by a fire which started at 10:30 o'clock this morning and has practically destroyed the Drumm Seed and Floral company and threatens to destroy the entire block in the business district.With the Trinity river at a flood stage of 85 feet, the city again was water-bound today. Many houses were inundated and street car traffic in three directions was suspended.A railway employee was drowned at Cleburne, 28 miles south of here, and a Mexican woman was killed at Thurber, 50 miles from here.A cloudburst west of here caused the flood.ALBANY POSTOFFICE WILL MOVE TONIGHTThe Albany postoffice, according to Postmaster L. E. Huie, will be open for service Wednesday morning in its new location.The move will be effected this evening and during the night. There has been a stream of callers for the past two days at the new location to view the new fixtures and compliment the postmaster and his force on the new quarters which would soon house them.
Many have made the visit to make arrangements for the particular lock box they wanted. One of the force has been on constant duty there most of the time for the past two days with a book to register the names of those patrons who took the occasion early to secure a lock box, just where they wanted it.Everything is now in place and Wednesday morning the patrons of the office can find the entire force ready to serve them at the new location.BRITISH VETERAN

BLOOMFIELD, N. J., May 9.— Worn and haggard from anxiety and loss of sleep, Alex E. Robertson, paused at the doorstep of his aunt's modest white cottage, before leaving for Washington, and pleaded for justice.The young British war veteran, who made the startling charge that detectives in the pay of Senator Culbertson, of Texas, kidnapped him because of his ardent and romantic courtship of Miss Mary Culbertson, the senator's daughter, is amazed at the magnitude of the sensation his charges caused.Robertson declares he had retained Judge Thomas Davis, of East Orange, and had been forbidden by him to discuss details of the charges and counter-charges that have developed in the case.CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN of the two cities, has been so successful that Albany workers, through the chamber of commerce, announced to-department were here last Thursday and were taken over Albany, which city is entered in the state "cleaner minute inspection of all sections of the municipality.In addition to the state-wide con-wards, the first and third. Judges will be selected by officials of the chamber of commerce, probably late today, and an inspection will be made this week to determine the winners of the cash awards.The women who took part in the campaign in Albany were delighted with the results, Miss Marjorie Mill-stated today. They are exceedingly anxious to see a permanent organiza-

called at an early date, it was stated, when details of such organization will be discussed.DROP ONE CHARGE AGAINST JUDGE(Montgomery Bureau, Albany-Decatur Daily)MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 9.— Charges of incompetency preferred against Probate Judge John S. Curtis, of Winston county in articles of impeachment filed by the attorney-general were stricken from the case by the supreme court Monday when it sustained demurrers interposed by attorneys for Curtis. The supreme court ruled that the specifications placed in the articles by the state under the charge of incompetency were not sufficient to indicate incompetency.The court also struck from the articles the specifications under the various charges which alleged that Judge Curtis improperly and falsely certified to Steiner Brothers, of Birmingham that the public debt of Winston county was less than it really was and the specifications which charged that Judge Curtis improperly dealt in county warrants.Harwell G. Davis, attorney-general, announced during the afternoon that the charge of incompetency would be rewritten and refiled and that all specifications stricken from the bill would be rewritten and re-filed.The decision on demurrers probably means that the supreme court will name a commissioner during the next few days who will go to Double Springs and take all testimony which the state and defense are willing to submit before him. All other testimony will be received by the supreme court at the formal hearing which has been set for May 23.

handing in their reply to the allied statement of conditions for recognition of the Moscow Soviet government.It was understood this afternoon that the detailed draft now is completed, that it will now be turned over to the entire Russian delegation tonight that, unless further changes are necessary, will be presented to the allies tomorrow.It was reported the Russians had agreed to certain concessions as a result of pressure from friendly sources, but that they had refused to concede anything that would impair the principles of the Bolshevik government.The general gloom, which has descended over the conference was somewhat lifted by official deal that the Anglo-French treaty was threatened.
If the allies decide that the preliminary answer of the Russians is acceptable as the basis of further negotiations, they will continue, if not the conference will find itself upon the rocks and adjournment will be taken by the end of the week.T. P. A.'S STRONG

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Strong opposition to leasing Muscle Shoals to Henry Ford "just because Henry Ford is behind it" was voiced today by Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska."Ford will live only three or four years after this project is completed and then Wall street will control Ford's corporation", Norris declared."I'm damned tired of hearing ac-itself into disposition of the govern-

proposal that all rival offers be submitted to a commission of nationally known electrical engineers for decision, was made to the senate agricultural committee by William McClel-

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FORD'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.

ARE THE JAPS INTERESTED IN THE CHINESE UPRISING.

Outside of anxiety for the safety of Americans in China at the present time we are interested to know whether or not Japan is directly or indirectly interested in the warfare in the Celestial Kingdom. Of the two leading generals Wu and Chang, the latter has been accused of being an agent of Japan. Chang was formerly an out and out bandit. About two years ago, the Japs were said to be dominant at Peking, until General Wu, with an all Chinese army from Yangtze river province fell upon Chang's army about Peking and defeated it and also the so-called Japanese controlled army about Peking. Wu is credited with having defeated this same Chang again, and reducing his army of 100,000 men to a mere body of wandering bandits. It stated that it is against this defeated army that the American government is now protecting American lives and American property. One writer, evidently with faith in the cause of General Wu says:

Wu's antagonism to the Japanese influence is well known. He is said to be a democrat, the consistent advocate of a national convention and popular government. It is said, and this may be the circumstance of most significance, that his army which met the troops of Chang and administered a severe beating and has not been paid for a year.

Which indeed seems to spoil the picture of a feudal chief following his personal ambitions, served by soldiers whose interest is their wage. It seems to indicate a share of the soldiers in the ambition which Wu has expressed to make his country strong enough to resist Japanese aggression; a share in the humiliation that anything resembling patriotism must feel on account of the Japanese domination in South Manchuria that has existed since the Russo-Japanese war.

Because China possesses no strong federal government—in fact her 400,000,000 people are said to be held together by patience, ancient beliefs in religion and by a hatred of war rather than by any laws such as governments enforce. Because this is true accounts for the fact that China has been the easy prey of outside nations, so many weary years. Observers in this country from the little definite information they can gather are hoping that the Peking government will find out which one of the contending factions is most strongly opposed to Japan, and support its contention to the limit. In the meantime in case civil war continues in China, Japan may be expected to take a hand any day.

TEMPERING JUSTICE WITH MERCY; THE "CHILDREN'S CRUSADE"

The threat of propagandists, favoring the immediate release of certain war prisoners, to establish a picket line in front of the White House made up of what they call the "Children's Crusade", raises a number of interesting questions, some concerning war history and some concerning justice and mercy. The matter on which many will differ as to the right treatment for the prisoners, will be as to the proper proportions of mercy and justice, to be used when decisions are made concerning them. Some will insist that the law should take its course leaving the prisoners to complete their sentences. Others will argue that there is not enough mercy in such a decision, and that following the example of most of the European nations, America should make a wholesale delivery of her war prisoners. A recent editorial in the Philadelphia Public Ledger recites some interesting history, and the writer evidently thinks there is such a thing as tempering justice with too much mercy at the present time. The title of the article is: "Child's Crusade, vs." and is as follows:

President Harding has estimated correctly the

carefully advertised "Children's Crusade" that has reached Washington, and whose manipulators have announced that it will be turned into a "Picket Crusade" in front of the White House. There was, is and will be nothing spontaneous about this radical-led "drive" for the liberation of wartime, not "political," prisoners still in Federal jails.

This was a carefully organized "stunt" of the professional radical and perennial agitator. It has been aided and abetted by their sympathizers and helped along by the familiar pish-posh that always may be relied upon to swell up in the breasts of sentimental and misguided souls.

It had been planned for weeks. The children were gathered in St. Louis by Kate Richard O'Hare, well-known in radical and Department of Justice circles. She was associate editor of "The Social Revolution" in 1917. On December 7, 1917, at Fargo, North Dakota, she was given a long term in Federal prison for violation of the Espionage Act.

At Bowman, North Dakota, she had been doing her best to make German victory possible by opposing the draft act.

In encouraging disobedience to military registration she announced that "Young men who are foolish enough to enlist and volunteer are only good enough for German fertilizer." There was more of the same vintage.

In March, 1919, the United States Supreme Court refused to review her case. She went to prison in April, 1919, but on May 29, 1921, President Wilson freed her. Since that time she has flitted about the nation predicting and encouraging "social revolution." This is the woman who has led the "Crusade" to Washington, and her presence makes its background plain.

Had this move had anything genuine about it, had it been a "children's crusade" in fact as in name, they would have had a kindly and sympathetic bearing, for the President is the most kindly and sympathetic of men. He knows, however, whose hands led the children to Washington and why they were led. They were brought to the White House by the wrong people, dragged there to make a radical holiday.

The Kate Richards O'Hares have overreached themselves and made a bad cause worse. The politics they are playing is a sinister kind and has been recognized for exactly what it is. The administration has not been fooled by the higher-ups who are using these helpless children for their own ends, and the nation should not be misled by the "sob-stuff" they have engineered.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

On the threshold of life the perspective is bright and rose with promise. The dawn of each day is just so much time spent in the most fascinating pleasure, the pleasure of friendship's association and young life's dream.

To the mind of these, the future ones on whose shoulders is soon to fall the responsibilities of both church and state, the world is one great garden of happiness and pleasure. It is well that it is so. Perhaps with this perspective of life, when the real duties and responsibilities come, they will be better prepared to put sunshine into the dark corners of earth where they dwell, for it is some one's mission to do so, and there will be ample opportunities to wield all the powers one possesses along this line. The pleasant memories gained in this sunshiny period of life are the green places along the way where the mind can feast upon the pleasant spots of the journey, and will furnish a wall of defense when the storms of life break.

The spelling matches which are being pulled off in various parts of the country can mean but one thing, and that is the authorities recognize that spelling is likely to become a lost art. It is no secret that the earlier methods and means to make of students good spellers has waned considerably during the last 25 years. The methods employed at and prior to that time, drilled into the students of that period the definition, the derivation and the pronunciation of spelling words which we fear at this period of fast learning is becoming a lost art. As much as one may laugh when the Blue Back Speller is mentioned, those who diligently pursued this book of the past, and learned it, which all of that period had to do, became good spellers.

It is quite true that it took considerably longer to make a certain number of pages in this noted book than it does now in the spellers used now, but there was a thoroughness with which it was pursued which riveted home the words and the pronunciation thereof, which stayed with one. Im-ma-ter-i-al-ty was not spelled and pronounced all at one mouthful, but it was gone over something in this fashion: Im-ma-imma, te-imma-ri-imma-ri, al-imma-ter-i, i-imma-ter-i, ty-imma-ter-i. When this was gone over a few times the word was so thoroughly drilled in the mind of the speller that one never forgot. The very composition of the words, the position on the page of that famous book is fresh today in the mind of one who learned to spell from this book and on this wise.

Regarding the Reuther Pen

The following letter is self-explanatory:

Mr. W. F. Reuther,
Decatur, Ala.
My Dear Sir:
The Reuther fountain pen came through all O. K., and I wish to say that it is in the highest degree satisfactory. I believe it is the best fountain pen I have ever used. No pen could write with more delightful smoothness. Many makes of fountain pens, as you know, are exceedingly scratchy and stinky and hesitating and jerky in the flow of ink, but this Reuther Pen, I find, is notable for absence of all these undesirable qualities. I congratulate you on the perfection of your pen.

Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) T. E. BRANDON.

Thos. E. Harvey, 1113 Fourth Ave., S., Albany, says: "My kidneys were weakened by the lifting and straining work I did. The kidney secretions passed too freely and were highly colored. There were times when the secretions burned in passage. I had a soreness across the small of my back and when I got in an unusual position, sharp catches of pain darted through my back. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of all the trouble. For the past three years I have done heavy work without the slightest return of kidney complaint."

Father Dies While Saving His Family

(International News Service.)
 MARENGO, Ill., May 9.—Five members of a family of nine were burned to death here today when fire swept the home of August Borke, 48, a railway employe. The five were Borke, his children, Harold, 8; Helen, 6; Peter, 4; and Berna, 2. Borke lost his own life in aiding the members of his family who were saved.

He got his wife, and his infant son out of a first floor window to safety and wrapped in 9 year old son in a blanket and dropped him from a second floor window.

"Bull" Fight Staged Free of Charge

Local people were treated this afternoon to many thrills of a bull fight. There was nothing "bootleg" nor clandestine about the affair, however, there wasn't even any admission charge.

Several Morgan County planters today brought a young heifer to the local market. At the intersection of Moulton street and Second avenue, one of the busiest corners in the business district, the animal broke away from its convoy, with the exception of one lone visitor, who swung onto the heifer's neck, with the aid of the remainder of the party, finally overpowering it. A large crowd of tickled pedestrians watched the "battle."

STUDIO DAMAGED
 At 12:30 o'clock today the Albany fire department was called to the Kirby Studio on Grant street. Defective wiring was the cause. Damage slight.

3 BIG QUESTIONS BEFORE METHODISTS

(International News Service)
 HOT SPRINGS, Ark., May 9.—With three much disputed questions, heresy, unification and church rights for decision, action on one of these is looked forward to today by delegates to the 19th general quadrennial conference of the M. E. Church South. The first big act of legislation went over without a word. It was the removal of Arizona and Needles, Cal., from the Los Angeles, Cal., conference.

It was a different manner, however, when the memorial which would allow an unordained preacher to administer the sacrament came up for consideration.

The bishops prepared to talk all day, if necessary, to defeat the measure, but it was placed in the calendar. The conference voted to ask congress not to decrease the present number of chaplains and to grant them higher rights.

"My wife was unable to eat even the lightest food, and had fallen away to a living skeleton. She could not even keep doctor's medicine on her stomach and was tortured with pain. On the recommendation of a friend I bought a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy and she is all right now and has gained forty pounds." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes that catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Anita Stewart Imitable in an Irresistible Play.

Some Fascinating Facts: "The Invisible Fear" stands among the most sumptuous plays the imitable star has ever produced. The wardrobe she presents constitutes a style-show in itself. Again she has two leading men—Walter McGrail and Alan Forrest. There are thrills aplenty in a careering cross-country horseback paper-chase, in elemental tempests and emotional storms. And on top of all—a story strong in drama, romance and the unexpected.

Steel Companies Merger Intensifies Fire On Tariff

ANNUAL PRODUCTION OF 10,000,000 TONS IS PROPOSED BY THE GIANT COMBINATION

LaFollette Urges Governmental Agencies to Give Information Regarding Plan

WILL PRESS FOR EARLY ACTION ON RESOLUTION

U. S. Steel Corporation Declared To Look With Favor On New "Trust"

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The proposed merger of seven of the largest independent iron and steel corporations, which are said to be capable of a total annual production of 10,000,000 tons of steel, served today to fan the opposition in the senate to the "protective" iron and steel rates of the pending McCumber tariff bill.

Senator LaFollette, Republican of Wisconsin, member of the senate finance committee, said that it was his intention to press for early action upon his resolution calling upon Attorney General Daugherty and the federal trade commission for information regarding what steps they have taken or proposed to take to "ascertain the purpose or probable effects of the proposed merger."

LaFollette directed attention to a statement he said was recently made in New York city that the United States Steel Corporation "will not look with disfavor" on the creation of a "secondary steel trust" and that "with two big steel combination in the field, prices should be more uniform."

Steel manufacturers were understood to claim that the new combination "would tend to stabilize the steel industry now that the computed 10,000,000 tons capacity of the seven corporations could be "compared favorably" to the 22,000,000 ton capacity of the United States Steel Corporation.

One Man Shot By Officer When Still in Trinity Neighborhood Is Raided

About noon Monday, while deputies from the sheriff's office were making a raid on a still two miles north of Trinity, John Hutto was painfully, though not seriously, shot. The deputies had located the still and were in the act of surrounding persons nearby when their presence became known and a dash out of the range of the deputies was begun. Hutto was the only capture made.

The wounded man was at once rushed to town where he was given medical assistance, and carried to Benevolent hospital. The attending physician, Dr. Omar M. Roan, reports his condition improved this morning, and he will recover according to latest advises from the hospital.

The still destroyed was of 150 gallon capacity with a nucleus of 1000 gallons of beer to work on. The still was constructed according to the officers on the molasses evaporator style and was in full blast. A woman was at the scene, according to the officers, having just brought the dinner to the men who were engaged there.

County Lends Help to Improving Highway From Hartselle to Danville

The audience granted the delegation of citizens from Hartselle by the members of the board of revenue was productive of results, and some help will be given to the pike leading west from Hartselle. This is a popular highway, and at present it is almost impossible to travel it. The constant traffic over this route, together with the continued wet weather has rendered it in almost an impassable stage.

The arguments brought to bear on the members of the board of revenue was successful, and at an early date there will be a program of reconstruction of this much used thoroughfare. It is one of the principal roads of the county, it was pointed out, and its condition warrants notice and active measures taken at once to remedy them, visitors told the board.

It is understood that this stretch of road will be taken care of along with the other projects launched by the board of revenue, so soon as money is available from the sale of bonds. It is further understood that there is a hitch somewhere in the ultimate sale of the bonds, and at this time it is impossible to tell exactly when the money will be available. It is confidently hoped and is the belief that the sale of bonds will be ratified by the bond bidder at an early date. When this is announced, the work will begin at once.

BRITISH VETERAN RETAINS COUNSEL

(International News Service) BLOOMFIELD, N. J., May 9.—Worn and haggard from anxiety and loss of sleep, Alex E. Robertson, paused at the doorstep of his aunt's modest white cottage, before leaving for Washington, and pleaded for justice.

The young British war veteran, who made the startling charge that detectives in the pay of Senator Culbertson, of Texas, kidnapped him because of his ardent nad romantic courtship of Miss Mary Culbertson, the senator's daughter, is amazed at the magnitude of the sensation his charges caused.

Robertson declares he had retained Judge Thomas Davis, of East Orange, and had been forbidden by him to discuss details of the charges and counter-charges that have developed in the case.

$200,000 Damage Caused By Flames Which Began at 10:30 O'Clock

TRINITY RIVER AGAIN IS AT FLOOD STAGE

High Waters Sweep Sections of the State Following Cloudburst

(International News Service.) FORTH WORTH, Texas, May 9.—

With the waterworks rendered useless by the high water, more than $200,000 damage has been caused by a fire which started at 10:30 o'clock this morning and has practically destroyed the Drumm Seed and Floral company and threatens to destroy the entire block in the business district.

With the Trinity river at a flood stage of 35 feet, the city again was water-bound today. Many houses were inundated and street car traffic in three directions was suspended.

A railway employee was drowned at Cleburne, 28 miles south of here, and a Mexican woman was killed at Thurber, 50 miles from here.

A cloudburst west of here caused the flood.

ALBANY POSTOFFICE WILL MOVE TONIGHT

The Albany postoffice, according to Postmaster L. E. Huie, will be open for service Wednesday morning in its new location.

The move will be effected this evening and during the night. There has been a stream of callers for the past two days at the new location to view the new fixtures and compliment the postmaster and his force on the new quarters which would soon house them. Many have made the visit to make arrangements for the particular lock box they wanted. One of the force has been on constant duty there most of the time for the past two days with a book to register the names of those patrons who took the occasion early to secure a lock box, just where they wanted it.

Everything is now in place and Wednesday morning the patrons of the office can find the entire force ready to serve them at the new location.

REHEARSAL

CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN SO SUCCESSFUL THE WORKERS HOPING TO KEEP ORGANIZATION

City Beautiful Association May Grow Out of the Recent Drive

INSPECTORS ARE HERE LOOKING CITY OVER

Two Cash Prizes Will Be Awarded for Pair of Cleanest Blocks

The clean-up campaign in the Twin Cities, fostered in Albany by the chamber of commerce and in Decatur by the Parent Teachers' Association aided by many prominent women of the two cities, has been so successful that Albany workers, through the chamber of commerce, announced today that plans are being considered to make the organization permanent.

Inspectors from the state health department were here last Thursday and were taken over Albany, which city is entered in the state "cleaner city contest", the visitors making a minute inspection of all sections of the municipality.

In addition to the state-wide contest, prizes have been offered in Albany by the Parent Teachers' Association for the cleanest blocks in two wards, the first and third. Judges will be selected by officials of the chamber of commerce, probably late today, and an inspection will be made this week to determine the winners of the cash awards.

The women who took part in the campaign in Albany were delighted with the results, Miss Marjorie Miller, chamber of commerce secretary, stated today. They are exceedingly anxious to see a permanent organization grow out of the movement. Looking to that end, a meeting will be called at an early date, it was stated, when details of such organization will be discussed.

DROP ONE CHARGE AGAINST JUDGE

(Montgomery Bureau, Albany-Decatur Daily)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 9.—Charges of incompetency preferred against Probate Judge John S. Curtis, of Winston county in articles of impeachment filed by the attorney-general were stricken from the case by the supreme court Monday when it sustained demurrers interposed by attorneys for Curtis. The supreme court ruled that the specifications placed in the articles by the state under the charge of incompetency were not sufficient to indicate incompetency.

The court also struck from the articles the specifications under the various charges which alleged that Judge Curtis improperly and falsely certified to Steiner Brothers, of Birmingham that the public debt of Winston county was less than it really was and the specifications which charged that Judge Curtis improperly dealt in county warrants.

Harwell G. Davis, attorney-general, announced during the afternoon that the charge of incompetency would be rewritten and refilled and that all specifications stricken from the bill would be rewritten and refilled.

The decision on demurrers probably means that the supreme court will name a commissioner during the next few days who will go to Double Springs and take all testimony which the state and defense are willing to submit before him. All other testimony will be received by the supreme court at the formal hearing which has been set for May 23.

SOVIET DELEGATION DELAYS HANDING IN REPLY TO DEMANDS

GENOA, May 9.—The Russian delegation to the international economic conference today again delayed handing in their reply to the allied statement of conditions for recognition of the Moscow Soviet government.

It was understood this afternoon that the detailed draft now is completed, that it will now be turned over to the entire Russian delegation to-night that, unless further changes are necessary, will be presented to the allies tomorrow.

It was reported the Russians had agreed to certain concessions as a result of pressure from friendly sources, but that they had refused to concede anything that would impair the principles of the Bolshevik government.

The general gloom, which has descended over the conference, was somewhat lifted by official deal that the Anglo-French treaty was threatened. If the allies decide that the preliminary answer of the Russians is acceptable as the basis of further negotiations, they will continue, if not the conference will find itself upon the rocks and adjournment will be taken by the end of the week.

T. P. A.'S STRONG FOR FORD OFFER

Members of the Traveller's Protective Association in Alabama are strong for the offer of Henry Ford for Muscle Shoals, and see no necessity for continual changes in it, according to resolutions adopted at the state convention of the organization held in Montgomery.

Local delegates have returned from the capital meeting, reporting a very interesting session. Members of the delegation, W. E. Hefner, W. H. Aycock, Pat Brock, Mr. Harlow and Floyd Taylor. The convention will be held in Selma next year.

An unusual honor was conferred on J. D. Jeffris, who was elected as a delegate from Alabama to the national T. P. A. meeting to be held in June in Atlantic City.

Dr. Wikle Elected Anniston's Mayor

ANNISTON, May 9.—Today's count of votes cast in yesterday's city primary election shows that Dr. Wikle was nominated for mayor over Mayor H. B. Rudisill and Sidney J. Reeves. DAMED TIRED' OF HEARING HIS OFFER BOOSTED BECAUSE OF THE NAME ALONE

Nebraska Senator Waxes Warm in the Defense of His Course

SCIENCE IS PROJECTED INTO THE PROPOSITION

President of Engineers Requests Board Be Named To Consider Bids

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, May 9.—Strenuous opposition to leasing Muscle Shoals to Henry Ford "just because Henry Ford is behind it" was voiced today by Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska.

"Ford will live only three or four years after this project is completed and then Wall street will control Ford's corporation", Norris declared. "I'm damned tired of hearing acceptance of Henry Ford's offer advocated just because he is behind it. I want just as rigid protection given the people in a lease to the Standard Oil. If congress doesn't do it, the farmer will hold the bag, as usual."

American science today projected itself into disposition of the government's huge waterpower project. A proposal that all rival offers be submitted to a commission of nationally known electrical engineers for decision, was made to the senate agricultural committee by William McClelland, president of the Institute of American Engineers, representing 130 engineers. He declared his organization felt the project was of such national importance that congress might make a mistake if it attempted to decide without the expert advice of disinterested engineers of national repute.

CHECK ACCOUNTS OF ROAD DEPARTMENT

(Montgomery Bureau, Albany-Decatur Daily)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 9.—With S. P. McDonald, of Sylacauga, acting as chairman, the special subcommittee of the state highway commission named at the last meeting Monday began a general investigation of the accounts of the state highway department. This subcommittee is charged with the duty of acquainting itself thoroughly with all details of the operation of the highway department and with the preparation of a report and suggestions regarding the work and changes necessary to keep all records up to date and before the public.

The investigation resulted from a resolution of Mr. McDonald which called for the preparation of a budget system and the creation of such records as would keep all members of the commission advised at all times of the work of the department.

In addition to Chairman McDonald, other members of the sub-committee are John Craft, of Mobile, Fred J. Cranton, of Montgomery, John A. Callan of Auburn.

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE
OF HENRY FORD'S BID
FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.ARE THE JAPS INTERESTED IN THE CHINESE UPRISING.

Outside of anxiety for the safety of Americans in China at the present time we are interested to know whether or not Japan is directly or indirectly interested in the warfare in the Celestial Kingdom. Of the two leading generals Wu and Chang, the latter has been accused of being an agent of Japan. Chang was formerly an out and out bandit. About two years ago, the Japs were said to be dominant at Peking, until General Wu, with an all Chinese army from Yangtze river province fell upon Chang's army about Peking and defeated it and also the so-called Japanese controlled army about Peking. Wu is credited with having defeated this same Chang again, and reducing his army of 100,000 men to a mere body of wandering bandits. It stated that it is against this defeated army that the American government is now protecting American lives and American property. One writer, evidently with faith in the cause of General Wu says:

Wu's antagonism to the Japanese influence is well known. He is said to be a democrat, the consistent advocate of a national convention and popular government. It is said, and this may be the circumstance of most significance, that his army which met the troops of Chang and administered a severe beating and has not been paid for a year.

Which indeed seems to spoil the picture of a feudal chief following his personal ambitions, served by soldiers whose interest is their wage. It seems to indicate a share of the soldiers in the ambition which Wu has expressed to make his country strong enough to resist Japanese aggression; a share in the humiliation that anything resembling patriotism must feel on account of the Japanese domination in South Manchuria that has existed since the Russo-Japanese war.

Because China possesses no strong federal government—in fact her 400,000,000 people are said to be held together by patience, ancient beliefs in religion and by a hatred of war rather than by any laws such as governments enforce. Because this is true accounts for the fact that China has been the easy prey of outside nations, so many weary years. Observers in this country from the little definite information they can gather are hoping that the Peking government will find out which one of the contending factions is most strongly opposed to Japan, and support its contention to the limit. In the meantime in case civil war continues in China, Japan may be expected to take a hand any day.

TEMPERING JUSTICE WITH MERCY;
THE "CHILDREN'S CRUSADE"

The threat of propagandists, favoring the immediate release of certain war prisoners, to establish a picket line in front of the White House made up of what they call the "Children's Crusade", raises a number of interesting questions, some concerning war history and some concerning justice and mercy. The matter on which many will differ as to the right treatment for the war prisoners, will be as to the proper proportions of mercy and justice, to be used when decisions are made concerning them. Some will insist that the law should take its course leaving the prisoners to complete their sentences. Others will argue that there is not enough mercy in such a decision, and that following the example of most of the European nations, America should make a wholesale delivery of her war prisoners. A recent editorial in the Philadelphia Public Ledger recites some interesting history, and the writer evidently thinks there is such a thing as tempering justice with too much mercy at the present time. The title of the article is: "Child's Crusade, vs." and is as follows:

carefully advertised "Children's Crusade" that has reached Washington, and whose manipulators have announced that it will be turned into a "Picket Crusade" in front of the White House. There was, is and will be nothing spontaneous about this radical "drive" for the liberation of wartime, not "political," prisoners still in Federal jails.

This was a carefully organized "stunt" of the professional radical and perennial agitator. It has been aided and abetted by their sympathizers and helped along by the familiar pish-posh that always may be relied upon to swell up in the breasts of sentimental and misguided souls.

It had been planned for weeks. The children were gathered in St. Louis by Kate Richard O'Hare, well-known in radical and Department of Justice circles. She was associate editor of "The Social Revolution" in 1917. On December 7, 1917, at Fargo, North Dakota, she was given a long term in Federal prison for violation of the Espionage Act.

At Bowman, North Dakota, she had been doing her best to make German victory possible by opposing the draft act.

In encouraging disobedience to military registration she announced that "Young men who are foolish enough to enlist and volunteer are only good enough for German fertilizer." There was more of the same vintage.

In March, 1919, the United States Supreme Court refused to review her case. She went to prison in April, 1919, but on May 29, 1921, President Wilson freed her. Since that time she has flitted about the nation predicting and encouraging "social revolution." This is the woman who has led the "Crusade" to Washington, and her presence makes its background plain.

Had this move had anything genuine about it, had it been a "children's crusade" in fact as in name, they would have had a kindly and sympathetic bearing, for the President is the most kindly and sympathetic of men. He knows, however, whose hands led the children to Washington and why they were led. They were brought to the White House by the wrong people, dragged there to make a radical holiday.

The Kate Richards O'Hares have overreached themselves and made a bad cause worse. The politics they are playing is a sinister kind and has been recognized for exactly what it is. The administration has not been fooled by the higher-ups who are using these helpless children for their own ends, and the nation should not be misled by the "sob-stuff" they have engineered.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

On the threshold of life the perspective is bright and rosey with promise. The dawn of each day is just so much time spent in the most fascinating pleasure, the pleasure of friendship's association and young life's dream.

To the mind of these, the future ones on whose shoulders is soon to fall the responsibilities of both church and state, the world is one great garden of happiness and pleasure. It is well that it is so. Perhaps with this perspective of life, when the real duties and responsibilities come, they will be better prepared to put sunshine into the dark corners of earth where they dwell, for it is some one's mission to do so, and there will be ample opportunities to wield all the powers one possesses along this line. The pleasant memories gained in this sunshiny period of life are the green places all along the way where the mind can feast upon the pleasant spots of the journey, and will furnish a wall of defense when the storms of life break.

The spelling matches which are being pulled off in various parts of the country can mean but one thing, and that is the authorities recognize that spelling is likely to become a lost art. It is no secret that the earlier methods and means to make of students good spellers has waned considerably during the last 25 years. The methods employed at and prior to that time, drilled into the students of that period the definition, the derivation and the pronunciation of spelling words which we fear at this period of fast learning is becoming a lost art. As much as one may laugh when the Blue Back Speller is mentioned, those who diligently pursued this book of the past, and learned it, which all of that period had to do, became good spellers.

It is quite true that it took considerably longer to make a certain number of pages in this noted book than it does now in the spellers used now, but there was a thoroughness with which it was pursued which riveted home the words and the pronunciation thereof, which stayed with one. Im-ma-te-ri-al-ty was not spelled and pronounced all at one mouthful, but it was gone over something in this fashion: Im-ma-imma, te-imma-te-ri-imma, al-imma-te-ri-imma, ty-imma-te-ri-imma. When this was gone over a few times the word was so thoroughly drilled in the mind of the speller that one never forgot. The very composition of the words, the position on the page of that famous book is fresh today in the mind of one who learned to spell from this book and on this wise.

The following letter is self-explanatory:
Mr. W. F. Reuther, Decatur, Ala.

My Dear Sir:
The Reuther fountain pen came through all O. K., and I wish to say that it is in the highest degree satisfactory. I believe it is the best fountain pen I have ever used. No pen could write with more delightful smoothness. Many makes of fountain pens, as you know, are exceedingly scratchy and stingy and hesitating and jerky in the flow of ink, but this Reuther Pen, I find, is notable for absence of all these undesirable qualities. I congratulate you on the perfection of your pen.

Very sincerely yours,
(Signed) T. E. BRANDON.

MARENGO, Ill., May 9.—Five members of a family of nine were burned to death here today when fire swept the home of August Borke, 48, a railway employe. The five were Borke, his children, Harold, 8; Helen, 6; Peter, 4; and Berna, 2. Borke lost his own life in aiding the members of his family who were saved.

"Bull" Fight Staged Free of Charge

Local people were treated this afternoon to many thrills of a bull fight. There was nothing "bootleg" nor clandestine about the affair, however, there wasn't even any admission charge.

Several Morgan County planters today brought a young heifer to the local market. At the intersection of Moulton street and Second avenue, one of the busiest corners in the business district, the animal broke away from its convoy, with the exception of one lone visitor, who swung onto the heifer's neck, with the aid of the remainder of the party, finally overpowering it. A large crowd of tickled pedestrians watched the "battle."

(International News Service)
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., May 9.—With three much disputed questions, heresy, unification and church rights for decision, action on one of these is looked forward to today by delegates to the 19th general quadrennial conference of the M. E. Church South. The first big act of legislation went over without a word. It was the removal of Arizona and Needles, Cal., from the Los Angeles, Cal., conference.

It was a different manner, however, when the memorial which would allow an unordained preacher to administer the sacrament came up for consideration.

The bishops prepared to talk all day, if necessary, to defeat the measure, but it was placed in the calendar. The conference voted to ask congress not to decrease the present number of chaplains and to grant them higher rights.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, May 9.—The cotton market opened firm today at an advance of ten to 47 points, influenced by strength in Liverpool and heavy rains in Texas. Old longs were heavy sellers on the rise and the list reacted after the start. Dealings were large.

WEATHER

For weather: Fair tonight. Wednesday partly cloudy and somewhat unsettled.

Man Saves Wife In Nick of Time

"My wife was unable to eat even the lightest food, and had fallen away to a living skeleton. She could not even keep doctor's medicine on her stomach and was tortured with pain. On the recommendation of a friend I bought a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and she is all right now and has gained forty pounds." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes that catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by all druggists everywhere.—Advertisement.

ANITA STEWART
The Invisible Fear

Presented by LOUIS B. MAYER

Directed by EDWIN CAREWE

Story by HAMPTON DEL RUTH

Anita Stewart Inimitable in an Irresistible Play.

Some Fascinating Facts: "The Invisible Fear" stands among the most sumptuous plays the inimitable star has ever produced. The wardrobe she presents constitutes a style-show in itself. Again she has two leading men—Walter McGrail and Alan Forrest. There are thrills aplenty in a careering cross-country horseback paper-chase, in elemental tempests and emotional storms. And on top of all—a story strong in drama, romance and the unexpected.

Found—that glorious feeling that comes with a clear, pure, ruddy complexion.

250 Pimples, 736 Blackheads and 3 Boils!

No reward is offered, because they are lost forever! No question will be asked, except one question, "How did you lose them?" There is but one answer—"I cut out" new face treatments and guesswork; I used one of the most powerful blood-purifiers, blood-purifiers and fresh-builders known, and that is S. S. S. Now my face is pinkish, my skin clear as a rose, my cheeks are filled out and my rheumatism, too, is gone! This S. S. S. to your experience, too, if you try S. S. S. It is guaranteed to be purely vegetable in all its remarkably effective medicinal ingredients. S. S. S. means a new history for you from now on! S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.
